NOT SO BAD.

Young Man From Asheville Has Skipped.

The fight which occurred Sunday morning at a respectable house in East Greensboro, has not resulted so seriously as was expected. The young man who received the blow on the head was one Will Wilkinson, of Asheville, and the boy who delivered the blow was Charlie Morton, of this city. At the trial yesterday afternoon, Wilkinson's physician testified that was getting along nicely, but that he was unable to come to trial. When it was found that Wilkinson was out of danger, Morton was bailed, getting out of jail at 8 o'clock, last night.

Roxy Burnham, at whose house the fight occurred, was summoned to trial as a witness yesterday and having failed to appear, Mayor Taylor issued two warrants for her arrest—one for failure to appear at the trial and one for keeping a disorderly house. In default of $100 bond she was sent to jail to await the next term of court.

Wilkinson, realizing how disgraceful the affair really was, while the police thought him confined in his room at the hotel, slipped out last night and boarded one of the southbound trains which leave here soon after dark. He settled his hotel bill about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and after this the hotel people knew nothing of his whereabouts.

This saves young Morton and his partners from a lawsuit as there is no one to push the case.

Commissioners Meet.

The members of the two commissions appointed by the Western North Carolina conference and the North Carolina conference respectively, to meet and confer with each other to settle the Advocate question, arrived at noon today and met tonight.

The commission from the Western North Carolina is composed of Dr. J. H. Weaver, of Salisbury, Dr. C. W. Byrd and Mr. Buttrick, of Asheville, and Mr. F. C. Robins, of Lexington. The North Carolina conference commission is composed of Rev. J. N. Cole, of Durham, Rev. J. E. Underwood, of Warrenton, Mr. J. G. Brown, of Raleigh and Mr. L. W. McMullan.

Cable vs Southern Ry Co.

This case was taken up on last Saturday, and after a hard fight the jury returned a verdict this morning in favor of the plaintiff for three thousand dollars. The action was first tried before Judge McIver, who decided against the plaintiff on questions of law. Plaintiff appealed to the Supreme Court, which reversed Judge McIver and ordered a new trial. The second trial resulted in a verdict of twenty-five hundred dollars for Plaintiff, which was set aside by Judge Robinson. The third trial resulted as above stated.

Plaintiff was represented by D. Schenck and Chas. M. Stedman, and defendant by F. H. Busbee.

Christmas Bazaar.

The Pauline Little Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church will have a Christmas Bazaar open from 4 p. m. to 10 p. m., next Friday, at the residence of Mrs. Geo. H. Royser, 433 Church street. All sorts of dolls and Christmas things will be offered for sale at low figures, while sandwiches, cream, cake, chocolate, etc., will add to the joy of the occasion.

The Chocolate Party.

To be given tonight by the Altar Guild and Ladies' Aid Society of St. Barnabas church will be quite a unique affair. The costumes of the young ladies will be a reproduction of the celebrated picture, "A Chocolate Girl," and chocolate in all its tempting forms will be dispensed by their most daintily, while oysters, always acceptable at this season, will be served under Mrs. Fonda's experienced supervision.

A Card of Thanks.

I wish to return my many thanks to the kind people of Greensboro for their kindness shown me during my mother's sickness and death, and also to Messrs. Tatum & Taylor for free use of hack and team and Mr. F. F. Smith for free use of horse.

Most Respectfully,
Mrs. Goins.

McKinley Passes Tonight.

The president of the United States will pass through Greensboro tonight about 11 o'clock in a special train over the Southern Railway, en route to Atlanta.

Dr. Leander Seaton took an ounce and a half of aconite in a cheap lodging house in Pittsburgh, and died there yesterday. He had $540 in a satchel. His home was at Stauffer, Pa.

When you ask for De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve don't accept a counterfeit or imitation. There are more cases of Piles being cured by this, than all others combined. Howard Gardner.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

THE NICARAGUA CANAL BILL

Will Pass Senate By a Large Majority.

HARDEST FIGHT IN THE HOUSE.

Governor Russell's Visit to the President—Mr. McKinley's Southern Trip Begins Today.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, Dec. 13—Senator Morgan, of Alabama, who is in charge of the Nicaragua canal bill in the senate, in an interview last evening, predicted the passage of the bill through the senate by a large majority, and is hopeful, in spite of the antagonism developed, of sending the bill to the house of representatives before the Christmas holidays. The majority of the senate is undoubtedly in favor of the early passage of the bill, and it is expected that the opponents of the measure will make their principal attack against it in the lower house. On a straight vote it is believed too that the house is overwhelmingly in favor of the construction of the canal, and of the passage of the bill at this season, but the rivalry which has developed over the opposition bills makes the passage of the measure in the house doubtful.

There are reports of the presence of a powerful lobby, representing the Pacific railroads in Washington, but nothing definite as to this can be ascertained, excepting the vague rumors and the intense opposition to the bill developing in the senate and house. It is said that the lobby reported to be assembling here for the purpose of defeating the measure has the financial backing of Mr. Collis P. Huntington, and other magnates of the Pacific coast, representing the railroad interests of that section.

The attitude of Senators Pritchard, and Butler upon the bill is uncertain. It is thought that both Senators will vote for the measure. In the house, the North Carolina delegation is reported to be largely in favor of the proposition.

Senator Morgan stated last night that he had no idea as to when a vote could be reached, as it depends entirely upon the amount of time the opposing Senators deem that they are entitled to.

Among the callers at the executive mansion yesterday afternoon was Gov. Russell. He was at once ushered into the presence of the president, and spent some time talking with the chief executive in relation to matters of interest to the state troops. After the departure of the governor he returned to the Ebbitt House. He stated that his call was purely in reference to the state troops, and had no reference to the troubles in the south after the election.

Another caller upon the president yesterday was Senator Pritchard, of North Carolina, who has just returned here for the session of congress. The senator did not go to the white house with Governor Russell, but preceded the governor. His visit was in reference to the coming order of the president modifying the civil service laws, and other North Carolina matters. It is said that the matter of North Carolina appointments remaining to be filled was one of the subjects in which Senator Pritchard was interested.

It was stated at the Ebbitt House last night that the governor would return to Raleigh today.

In the criminal court yesterday Charles Goldberg, a white youth, whose home is at Winston, North Carolina, was placed upon trial for housebreaking. Goldberg withdrew his plea of not guilty, and entered a plea of guilty. The father of the young man, and his young wife, both of whom came from Winston the other day, were present in the court room during the proceedings.

A delegate from Augusta, Georgia, headed by ex-senator Patrick Walsh, called at the White House, and succeeded in getting the president's consent to visit Augusta on his southern tour. The party leave Washington this afternoon about two o'clock. Col. L. S. Brown, of the Southern railroad, will be in personal charge of the distinguished party.

During the president's absence from the city there will be very few, if any, presidential nominations sent to the senate. Owing to this fact yesterday a number of senators and representatives who have appointments pending, called at the white house to interest the president.

Postmasters have been appointed in North Carolina as follows:

Anna, Alleghany, Mrs. Ollie M. Smith; Beech, Buncombe county, F. A. Penland; Cana, Davie county, John M. Bailey; Harman, Watauga, Polly W. Edmington; Joy, Burke, John Deal; Partee, Alexander, Robert F. Tuttle. Charles N. Jenk, of Asheville, is at the St. James Hotel.

Mr. J. A. Smith, of Bessemer city, N. C., is at the St. James.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C. Dec. 13

Mr. Donohue Smith and family moved into their new house on Steele street yesterday.

J. Wrenn is building two new houses on the Coffin property.

Wilson, the tailor, is now engaged bottling overcoats. If you wish to be in style, take your coat to him and he will do the rest.

We are glad to see Miss Katie Smith back at the millinery store after two weeks confinement with a severe cold.

In talking about the electric lights, we often hear people speak about them being so many candle power. That must be the trouble with our street lights, so many candle power and now all of the tallow has melted and they are no candle power.

In our round this morning our gaze fell upon Jones' revolving photo display apparatus, and of course we could not help but drop in. We found Mr. Jones very busy opening his new unicolor photo cards and mantello mounts, upon which he is now arranging his holiday goods. In addition to the above named new goods, his exquisites are new. High Point has a photographer whose work is unequalled in the south. Ask him to show you his new work.

A little Jew standing on the corner at Jarrell's Hotel yesterday asked; what time is the 11:40 train due here? Of course we replied the same time, which made him laugh at himself for asking such a question.

Mr. Murphy, Brewer, of Carthage, has accepted a position on the Citizen.

New steel rails are being laid on the side track of the Home Furniture Co.

Geo. A. Matton's Christmas goods are on exhibition, call and see them.

Cheered the New Judge.

The joy of the people of North Carolina in the democratic victory of the 8th of November is continuous. There is evidence of this in the numerous celebrations of it which have been held in the state. There was quite remarkable proof of it in Charlotte yesterday in the fact that Judge Dossey Battle entered the court house, to open his first court here, the people took off their hats and cheered him. It is doubtful if there was ever a similar demonstration in the state before. Again last night, as Judge Battle entered the opera house, he was applauded. Both incidents must have been very gratifying to him, as an individual and as a democrat.—Charlotte Observer.

Scores of men in Greensboro who have worn Harvard calf goodyear welt shoes and are still wearing them, will tell you that they are the best shoes they have ever seen for the price. Thacker & Brockmann sell this special line of shoes at $2.50 and claim positively that they will wear equal to any three dollar shoe sold in Greensboro.

Bliss May Resign.

By Wire to the Telegram.
Washington, Dec. 13—It is very probable that Secretary Bliss, of the Interior department, will resign within a short time. He has had this step under consideration for some time, and deems it necessary for him to devote more time to his private business.

Harcourt About to Resign.

By Cable to the Telegram.
London, Dec. 13—The News says Harcourt has resigned or is about to resign the leadership of the Liberal party in the house of commons, owing to dissatisfaction at the present state of affairs within the party.

Notice.

Bishop J. W. Hood will preach at Trinity A. M. E. Zion church tonight Dec. 13th. All the members are requested to be present to meet the Bishop in an official meeting after the services.
J. Francis Lee, pastor.

Two Pointed Questions Answered.

What is the use of making a better article than your competitor if you can not get a better price for it?

Ans.—As there is no difference in the price the public will buy only the better, so that while our profits may be smaller on a single sale they will be much greater in the aggregate.

How can you get the public to know your make is the best?

If both articles are brought prominently before the public both are certain to be tried and the public will very quickly pass judgment on them and use only the better one. This explains the large sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The people have been using it for years and have found that it can always be depended upon. They may occasionally take up with some fashionable novelty put forth with exaggerated claims, but are certain to return to the one remedy that they know to be reliable, and for coughs, colds and croup there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For sale by C. E. Holton.

GENERAL GARCIA'S FUNERAL.

His Son, Captain Garcia, Was the Only Mourner.

A PROMINENT MAN SUICIDES.

Gideon W. Marsh, Ex-Bank President, Sentenced to Twelve Years For Embezzlement.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Washington, Dec. 13—The funeral of General Garcia was held today at ten o'clock in St. Patrick's Roman Catholic church. The body was borne from the hotel on a caisson draped with American and Cuban flags and was escorted by Batteries K and E and the Fifth and Sixth United States artillery in carriages followed by the members of the Cuban commission and the Cuban delegation from New York and other prominent Cubans and others preceded by the Fourth artillery band.

Young Captain Garcia was the only mourner, supported by two Cuban friends. The honorary pall bearers were Secretary Hay, Generals Miles, Shafter, Wheeler, Lawton and Ludlow, Senators Proctor, Thurston, Money, Mason, and Hon. John R. Proctor. The Cuban relief commission attended in a body.

FOUND DEAD.

New York, Dec. 13—Henry Walke, a director of the Norfolk National Bank and the head of a large hardware supply house doing a tremendous business with the government in navy yard supplies, and president of the Virginia Club, of Norfolk, also a prominent man socially, was found dead in a lonely way at Adelphi Academy near Clifton Place and St. James Place, Brooklyn, this morning, with a bullet in his heart and another in the temple with a pistol in his hand. He was a guest at the Waldorf Astoria, where he was well known. He was discovered by passers by. No cause is assigned.

MARSH SENTENCED.

Philadelphia, Dec. 13—Gideon W. Marsh, the former president of the Keystone National Bank, was this morning sentenced to twelve years. He pleaded guilty to the indictments against him for conspiracy with Cashier Lawrence for misapplying funds of the bank, and making false reports to the comptroller of currency. Marsh has been a fugitive since 1891.

It was thought that Marsh would make a statement implicating others with wrecking the bank, when sentenced, but he merely informed the court that his predecessor as president of the bank, left a defalcation of over a million, and that he (Marsh) was never profited a dollar through the bank's losses. Here he broke down and was unable to proceed further. He trembled perceptibly when he was sentenced, and the expression on his face told that he expected lighter punishment.

CONGRESS TODAY.

Some Bills and Resolutions That Were Passed.

By Wire to the Telegram.
Washington, Dec. 13—The house passed a bill for the relief of American seamen. Congressman Hay, of Virginia, reported a resolution of inquiry, requesting the secretary of war to furnish the house with an estimate of the number of troops requisite to garrison the Philippines, Cuba, etc., which was passed.

Congressman Hitt, of Illinois, reported from the committee on foreign affairs, a resolution of inquiry relative to the alleged outrage of American citizens in China, which was passed.

On motion of Mr. Groat, of Vermont, the house went into a committee of the whole to consider the District of Columbia appropriation bill.

Low and Platt.

By Wire to the Telegram.
Washington, Dec. 13—Seth Low and Senator Platt called on McKinley today. Low wouldn't state the object of his visit, but it is understood that he endorsed Choate for Ambassador to Britain.

Corduroy for boys pants and suits and a line of single and double width cassimeres for men and boys wear at Thacker & Brockmann's. New line of ladies and mens holiday slippers to come in this week.

The Tarheels' Practice Ship.

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 12—The converted yacht "Hornet," which has been assigned to the naval reserves of North Carolina for use as a practice ship, is in readiness to leave the Norfolk navy-yard and will shortly sail for the naval station, of Southport, N. C.

A cough is not like a fever. It does not have to run a certain course. Cure it quickly and effectually with One Minute Cough Cure, the best remedy for all ages and for the most severe cases. We recommend it because it's good. Howard Gardner.

IN THE PHILIPPINES.

Twenty-five Thousand Men Can Disband the Rebels.

By Wire to the Telegram.

New York, Dec. 13—The Herald representative in the Philippines has ascertained the feelings of the Filipinos toward the Americans. The naval and military officers want the regime which should be established. He visited the provinces and found the rebel forces well armed. The lowest type is opposed to American rule in any form.

After a comprehensive glance the correspondent was convinced that it is impossible to recognize the native republic. The peacefully disposed Filipinos are disgusted with the request of Aguinaldo, who will be compelled to withdraw.

Among military and naval circles here it is held that a decisive blow ought to be struck and American rule established gradually, but firmly. Twenty-five thousand men with modern artillery will be sufficient to disband the rebels.

PROCLAMATION TO FILIPPINOS.

Washington, Dec. 13—The members of the cabinet meeting today, preceding the visit of the president to Atlanta and other southern points, discussed important matters, one of which was a proclamation addressed to the Filipinos, couched in similar terms to that issued to the people of eastern Cuba after the Santiago campaign. Liberal self government is promised the Filipinos, provided they will lay down their arms and prepare to resume peaceful occupations, and form a conjunction with the United States authorities in an effort to restore peace and quiet in the islands.

The proclamation provides for military government of the islands pending the moment when it may become possible to establish a stable civil government. The document will be made public this afternoon and cabled to Manila to be published throughout the islands.

Died.

In this city, on Saturday, Dec. 9th, after a protracted illness, Mrs. Nancy Anderson, aged about 85 years.

TUESDAY, DEC. 13, 1898.

Col. William Jennings Bryan has resigned as colonel of the Third Nebraska, and his resignation has been accepted by President McKinley. He was given no opportunity to distinguish himself as a soldier. That fact alone will win him new friends.

It is our opinion that a wise selection was made when Mr. J. M. Walker was chosen as alderman in place of Mr. McKinney, who resigned to accept the more remunerative office of county treasurer. Mr. Walker is a successful business man, and a man who, we believe, has the best interests of the city at heart.

Are the wishes of the people of Greensboro to be choked and strangled and competition throttled by the influence of a concern known as some kind of a general electric company? We shall see. That will not settle the question. "No question is ever settled until it is settled right." The people will yet take a turn at the wheel.

With the retirement of Judge Jas. D. McIver from the superior court bench the judiciary in North Carolina has lost one of the purest men who ever wore the ermine. Owing to his health he was not nominated this year, and he will retire to the quiet of his home at Carthage, loved and admired by people all over North Carolina with whom he has come in contact during his eight years on the bench.

The press dispatches this morning have much to say about the fine appearance made by the First North Carolina regiment when the boys marched through the streets of Havana yesterday. It has been our impression that the press dispatches were intended to convey news and not to tell what everybody knew beforehand. North Carolina troops have always, from the time the first uniform was donned by a Tarheel, made a fine appearance. This statement, coming to us over the wires, is not news to us; but nevertheless it is gratifying to hear the old, true story repeated.

Pains in the chest when a person has a cold indicate a tendency toward pneumonia. A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on to the chest over the seat of pain will promptly relieve the pain and prevent the threatened attack of pneumonia. This same treatment will cure a lame back in a few hours. Sold by C. E. Holton.

The mammoth breaker of Congressman Connell's Enterprise Colliery, near Shamokin, which was destroyed in the recent storm, will be rebuilt by January 1.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that application will be made to the next general assembly of North Carolina to amend the charter of the city of Greensboro, North Carolina.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "I was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying 'I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God, I am saved and now a well and healthy woman. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1. Guaranteed or price refunded."

Five-year-old Herman Gingrich is in a precarious condition at Lebanon, Pa., from the effects of burns which he received while playing with matches.

Braddock, Pa., wants to be incorporated as a city, taking in the towns of North Braddock, Rankin and East Pittsburgh.

Messrs. P. H. Kelly and A. S. McIntosh, of Carthage, came up yesterday afternoon to attend court. They returned home at noon today.

Messrs. R. B. Glenn, Clement Manly, R. J. Reynolds and C. W. Huske, of Winston, passed through today going to Mr. Glenn's farm, near Reidsville, on a hunting trip.

T. J. Redding, of Randolph county, is in the city this afternoon. Mr. Redding is the only democrat elected in the recent election in Randolph being elected to the house by a nice majority.

Corner West Gaston and North Spring streets, at Mr. James Callum's, this evening, is the time and place to enjoy yourself. Chocolate in every conceivable way, music, oysters and a pleasant occasion generally.

We call your attention to the enlarged space of Shrier, the shoe dealer today. He has many lines of fine footwear that must be reduced and is offering special bargains in these. Read his new ad and call to see him.

Another Letter to Santa.

Dear Old Santa Claus—I am a little girl just nine years old. I want a doll and a bed and many other things you think a little girl my age and size would like. I go to school.

A KENTUCKY GIRL.

Played To a Full House at the Academy Last Night.

The Peruchi-Beldent-Company opened a week's engagement at the Academy of Music last night, presenting "A Kentucky Girl" to a packed house. The play was strongly presented, and the audience well pleased. Zeb Gowdy, by Mr. Peruchi, and Charity Jarvey, the Kentucky girl, by Miss Beldent, were the two leading roles, and were exceedingly well played.

Mr. Peruchi is not only a comedian of the usual style, but a contortionist as well. His actions on the stage last night were exceedingly amusing.

Tonight "The Vagabond" will be put on. It is said to be a very good play—both exciting and amusing. Mr. Peruchi does not put on his best plays first, but says the performances will be better night by night.

Such a company as the Peruchi-Beldent should draw a full house every night.

The Great Manufacturer's Sale Of Clothing

has come to the conclusion that 200 and 300 Suits and Overcoats of one kind is too enormous a quantity to sell in 30 days and decided to cut the prices so deep that they run off at double speed, and here they go:

$20.00 Suits	for $8.50	$ 7.50 Suits	for $3.00
17.50 Suits	for 6.50	8.50 Suits	for 2.50
16.00 Suits	for 6.00	15.00 Overcoats	for 6.00
13.50 Suits	for 5.00	12.00 Overcoats	for 4.50

All these goods were just received, but dare not tarry long with us. Our motto: First come first served.

You had better be first to get your right size.
